Too Late for the Show.

YORKTOWN, Oct. 20.—The steamer Charleston, with the governor of Connecticut and staff and troops on board, arrived this morning. The pilot of the steamer did not know Yorktown harbor, and anchored his boat at the mouth of York river until he could get a pilot to bring her into port.

The Military Display at Yorktown.

The military review was successfully carried out. All the organizations presented a fine appearance and marched well. The route was about four miles over broad fields and an hour and twenty minutes was consumed in passing a given point. When the procession reached the grand stand Gen. Hancock and staff rode at the head, but then fell out of line and with President Arthur, his cabinet, foreign guests and other dignitaries reviewed the troops from the stand. Gen. Hancock stated to the president there were 9500 men in line. The states represented by volunteers were Georgia, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina, Rhode Island, Vermont, Kentucky, Michigan and Connecticut.

The president was quite enthusiastic over the magnificence of the display. The only colored troops in line were two companies from Richmond comprising part of the 1st Virginia regiment. They were loudly cheered by spectators from the north.

Death in a Delirium.

Mrs. Ella Riley, residing at 1121 Mission street, while delirious from intermittent fever, accidentally fell from a three-story window, receiving injuries from which she soon died.

Garfield Memorial.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—Memorial exercises in honor of the late President Garfield, under the auspices of the city of Boston, were held in Tremont temple, which was elaborately decorated. On the platform were many of the most prominent men in the commonwealth.

Iowa's Majority.

DES MOINES, Oct. 20.—Eighty-six of 99 counties give Sherman, for governor, 50,622 majority. It will largely exceed that number.

A Horrible Crime.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—A Republican's Longview, Texas, dispatch says: The most horrible crime ever committed in this part of Texas was perpetrated last Wednesday near Brickville by a family of negroes named White. A family named Sloan had recently moved into the neighborhood to pick cotton on the farm of Mr. Hill. A dispute arose between the Sloans and a negro, Lum White, because of an accusation by Lum that Sloan's children had been grabbing peanuts from Lum's patch. Lum went to the house of Sloan, Tuesday and wanted to whip the children, but was prevented by Mrs. Sloan and her daughter, about 15 years of age. For this he swore vengeance, and the next morning, upon the plea that he would show her where some fine muscadines were, the wife of Lum enticed the girl to a deep ravine where Lum was in waiting. While his wife held the girl Lum outraged her and then, using his pocket knife, cut her bowels open both lengthwise and crosswise, deliberately cutting off pieces of entrails as they protruded and scattering fragments far and near. He then cut the girl's throat from ear to ear and left her body where found. At the inquest the woman confessed all details when a young man named Hart, incensed at this cool recital of such fiendish brutality, shot the negro woman dead. The wife of Lum and an old negro who lived with them were started on their way to Carthage, but a crowd of men met the escort, took the prisoners and shot them.

A Relic of Bygone Days.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—In the U. S. circuit court to-day an order was made authorizing Oliver Ames, receiver of credit mobilier of America to execute unto Thos. C. Durant, formerly president of the credit mobilier, a full and complete release of all demands against him by credit mobilier upon execution and delivery to Durant of a proper legal conveyance of the real estate situated near Council Bluffs, Iowa, amounting to about 320 acres of lands in Platte county, Nebraska.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Tyner's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—First Assistant Postmaster General Tyner said to-day: "No letter contemplating my resignation has been received by me." By request he said he should pass unnoticed the newspaper charges until the return of the president and postmaster general.

Tyner's Denial.

Tyner denies that the president asked his resignation, but knows efforts have been made to have him displaced. He will certainly make a fight. As a defense against the charge regarding the report drawn up by him, he could only say, if it was not acted upon, it was not his fault. He has received many encouraging telegrams to-day.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Times to-day publishes Tyner's report on the star route service, a synopsis of which was given Monday night in Western Associated Press dispatches. It was upon this report and its suppression that Brady was removed. It is now said Tyner claims to have submitted the report to Postmaster General Key, and that he opposed it at Key's request.

Candidates for House Speakership.

With the Garfield administration John A. Kasson was first choice for speaker of the house. The work of Guiteau has brought Frank Hiscock nearer the front. George M. Robeson is making an active canvass, and will at least become the leader of the republican side.

Where Guiteau got his Money.

Geo. C. Maynard, the manager of the Telephone Company, lent Guiteau the money with which he bought the pistol to kill the president.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Scoville counsel for Guiteau, appeared in the criminal court this morning, but after a private conference with the court and District Attorney Corkhill, retired without making argument on the application for an order for witness fees. It is probable according to Scoville's statement the court will grant an application to-morrow without argument and assign associates for defense.

A Rather [illegible] Business.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Congressman J. C. Weil, of Missouri, to-day left his wife, whom he married while she was a dashing young widow several months ago. Since marriage she has become so much more dashing that he was unable to live with her. He will ask for a divorce.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Congressman Page, of California, backed by other republicans of that state, is to make a fight against director of the mint, Burchard, with a view of having him removed. Page and others, sometime ago, tried to have Dodge, superintendent of the San Francisco mint, removed, and an investigation ensued, but Burchard supported Dodge and he was sustained. Page now claims the investigation was a whitewashing affair and Burchard managed to save Dodge. Frank Scott, formerly coiner of the San Francisco mint, and who was removed by Burchard, is here with Page, and furnished the testimony on which Page bases his attack on Burchard.

Longstreet wanted for the Cabinet.

The Christiancy Case.

To-day in the Christiancy case Barnum, who had correspondence with Giro, testified that Giro extolled Mrs. Christiancy extravagantly and had said that as soon as she got a divorce he was going to try and marry her. Giro showed him all the letters from her and his replies, which witness corrected, Giro not writing English well. These letters purporting to be letters from Mrs. Christiancy to Giro which were put in evidence were not really her letters that he had seen, but entirely different in expression and sentiment. Giro told witness he did not care a damn about the letters becoming published, as he had a friend who could imitate any kind of writing.

Giro was greatly incensed when he found Mrs. Christiancy wouldn't marry him and swore he would get even, and had already secured a woman like her who would go with him to a hotel here, and he would leave the inference she was Mrs. C.

IRELAND'S IRRITATION

Increased by New Arrests of Land League Officers.

THE LEAGUE IS DECLARED A TREASONABLE ORGANIZATION,

And the British Government will Crush it out of Existence in the United Kingdom—Additions made to the Fighting Force in Ireland every Day.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DUBLIN, Oct. 20.—The house of Goddard, member of the property defense association, is now guarded against the mob by police.

Cobb, a leading member of the board of guardians of Mountmellick, Queens county, has been arrested. A troop of lancers escorted him to the Naas jail.

At a meeting of Carrick league to-day 25 persons were present. Two hundred tradesmen joined the organization. A detachment of hussars with sabres drawn, paraded the streets, and shops were closed.

Military and police patrol the streets of Limerick in large bodies to prevent assemblages.

In Cork the military are instructed to be prepared for every emergency.

The ladies' land league of Carrick-on-Suir expressed sympathy with Miss Parnell on account of the shock sustained through the arrest of the "uncrowned king of Ireland." They resolved to redouble their efforts, and advise no rent to be paid until every 'suspect' is released. The league addressed a letter to Victor Hugo asking the assistance of his powerful voice in Ireland's favor.

At 9 P. M. Dublin is quiet. The league has mailed copies of its manifesto and placards which contained only the words "no rents," to every land league branch. One hundred new cases were made Thursday.

To-day's sitting of the privy council was very protracted. It is understood that the manifesto of the land league was discussed. The land league offices are still open, but officials anticipate these will soon be seized. The Irish land commission has amalgamated with the property defense association.

Biggar says the future action of the league must be determined by experience. He predicted the government would be beaten in the struggle.

Miss Parnell has telegraphed her mother not to come to Ireland as she would be more useful in America.

The second battalion of grenadier guards stationed at Windsor is in readiness to proceed to Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The land league has been proclaimed as an illegal and criminal organization, and all its meetings will be dispersed by force.

Two hundred tenants of a large estate near Nenagh, county Tipperary, have paid their rents.

It is stated a proclamation suppressing the land league is pending.

The 31st regiment left Dover for Ireland to-day. It was loudly cheered.

LIMERICK, Oct. 20.—A letter from Archbishop Croke of Cashel, is published, strongly protesting against manifestations of the land league.

DUBLIN, Oct. 20.—William Dorris, who has been in charge of the land league office since the arrest of Sexton, was arrested this morning and conveyed to Dundalk.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Irish parliamentary party held a meeting to-day to arrange details of the Hyde park meeting on Sunday. The party denounced the British government and pledged Irishmen in England to carry out league principles with increased vigor.

DUBLIN, Oct. 20.—League prisoners in Kilmainham jail can only see physicians with the warden present.

The city is quiet. Arthur O'Connor has left for London. He stated that nothing had been decided upon regarding moving the office of the league. Many farmers of Westmeath and Roscommon have dodged claims for readjustment of rents.

Extensive Arrangements for Sunday.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The police arrangements in connection with the Parnell demonstration in Hyde park on Sunday are very extensive. Five hundred constables will be kept in reserve at a magazine along the route of march. Bodies of police will be stationed to protect property.

Opening of the Land Court.

DUBLIN, Oct. 20.—The land court opened to-day with a crowded attendance. Lord Justice O'Hagan said the court decided on extremely simple rules of procedure, free from all technicalities. The fee for entering court will be only a shilling, so nobody could have an excuse for not having advantage of the land act. There would be a similar fee on giving notice of appeal. Many tenants have already applied to have their rents fixed, but no decision could be given before the expiration of ten days. For the present the commissioners would do their best to make the act a success. The judge's statement was received with applause.

Gladstone's Precautions.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Daily Telegraph says: So elaborate are the precautions for the protection of Hawarden Castle, Gladstone's residence, they would warrant the supposition that the home secretary possessed alarming news of possible attacks.

Gladstone Recovering.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Gladstone is much better.

America's Feeling Towards England.

Right Hon. Sir John R. Mowbray, conservative member of parliament from Oxford university, writes the Times confirming Prof. Goldwin Smith's opinion concerning the kindly feelings of Americans for England. He says during his tour in the union he heard the most affectionate expressions towards England from all classes. He believes the unreasonableness of Irish agitation and the characters of the leaders are as thoroughly appreciated in America as in England.

Becoming Fearful.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Times says the charge for continuing open accounts on the bourse in Paris is at a rate from 15 to 20 per cent. per annum. The pressure is described as unexampled in recent times. Some of the most solid brokers are becoming awakened to danger and appealing to clients to close their accounts.

In this event the emperor of Austria will affirmatively answer the ambassador's inquiries as to whether a visit from King Humbert would be agreeable.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Hungary's Revenues.

PESTH, Oct. 20.—To cover the deficit in revenues, it is proposed to introduce a tax on petroleum, revise the customs tariff and increase the tax on alcoholic spirits. Poor Consolation for Ireland.

ROME, Oct. 20.—The Reforma says: A rising in Ireland would be unjustifiable, because Ireland could never separate from the kingdom without causing her own ruin. Ireland needs the support of England. Irishmen would perceive this if they were not mad. The Irish cause does not possess the sympathy of Europe.

Murder in the Mines.

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 20.—Charles Ziegler and Scodie were partners in a mine at Piute mountain. Tom Herbert was an employe. Zeigler and Herbert worked the mine, and Scodie lived at home on the South Fork. Zeigler and Herbert quarreled last Thursday, and the former went to Scodie's house, got some money, came back and paid Herbert off and said he didn't want him any longer. The above facts were witnessed by a Frenchman, who has since mysteriously disappeared. The next morning Herbert appeared at a neighbor's and said that Zeigler was dead and he thought heart disease was the cause of his death. He hadn't examined him. Zeigler was found with three bullet holes. One ball entered the neck to the left of and a little below the chin and lodged in the teeth on the opposite side. Another entered the back and passed through the lungs. Justice Goodall, of Havilah, was sent for and acting as coroner, summoned a jury and held an inquest. Herbert was the only witness, and testified that Zeigler came home in the evening, had been drinking and brought a bottle of whisky. They drank together a number of times, and Herbert went to bed. Zeigler went to his room and came back later with whisky, and asked Herbert to drink. He declined but finally drank. Zeigler went off and came back later with a bottle, and cup and asked Herbert to take another drink. Herbert said he had enough and would not drink any more. After considerable talk he finally drank. Herbert went to sleep and in the morning found Zeigler on the floor near his bed dead. He did not examine him and did not know what killed him. Heard no noise during the night; went to a neighbors and told them Zeigler was dead. Herbert's pants and boots had blood on them and the judge asked for an explanation. Herbert said he found Zeigler lying across his pants and boots and when he got up he pulled them from under him. The judge returned to Kernville and a constable went up and arrested Herbert and lodged him in jail at Kernville. Night before last a mob of 5 to 20 started for the jail to hang the prisoner. A majority of the mob were drunk. They were intercepted one hundred yards from the jail by Deputy Sheriff Ben. Mitchell. The mob fired on Mitchell, who exclaimed, "I'm shot," discharged his gun, loaded with buckshot, mortally wounding Jim Cochran, then fell dead. Cochran is said to be the man who shot the officer. Cochran was alive at last report. The mob dispersed without getting their man, and the sheriff and posse left for Kernville last night.

The bodies of his wife and eldest child were found close together by a bedroom window. The bodies were burned to a cinder. Four men were sleeping within a few yards, but could do nothing for the inmates. The fire is believed to be accidental.

Examination of Sires' Murderer.

It not being deemed prudent owing to the present popular feeling to show Payne on the streets his preliminary examination for the murder of Police Officer Sires was conducted privately in the sheriff's office at the jail building before Justice Coombs. Payne was brought out of his cell, placed on a stool in the jail yard where his irons were removed by a blacksmith. He was smoking a short stemmed pipe and manifested throughout the same stolid indifference as on his previous examination. When his irons were off he straightened the wrinkles out of his pants and accompanied the officers up stairs. During the solemn reading of the information charging him with murder he appeared unmoved, and in reply to the question as to his plea, he looked up and said in a loud voice, "not guilty." His attorney then stated he would waive examination, and the justice remanded Payne to the custody of the sheriff without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Victoria Notes.

VICTORIA, Oct. 20.—Chinese and white laborers are leaving the railway works in droves. Three hundred arrived down to-day. It is said the Chinese object to the payment of a $3 head tax, and that they can get higher pay on the Oregon roads.

Since the exodus yesterday a chinaman was caught in the crank of a stern wheel steamer and one of his limbs torn out of its socket. He died soon afterward.

Weather for the last three days rainy and squally, wind southeast.

The mail steamship Dakota sailed at 1 A. M. for San Francisco.

No other such loathsome, treacherous and undermining malady curses mankind. One-fifth of our Children die of diseases generated by its infectious Poison, and one-fourth of living men and women drag out miserable existences from the same cause. While asleep, the impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs to poison every part of the system. Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the parasitic virus and kills the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve, but certainly cure Catarrh at any stage. It is the only remedy which in our judgment, has ever yet really cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, Oct. 19, 1881.

Court met at 10 o'clock, A. M., full bench being present.

SYLLABUS.

1. In a complaint in an action against an administrator to establish a claim disallowed by him, an allegation that "such claim, verified by the oath of the claimant, was duly presented in writing to such administrator for allowance," is a sufficient averment of the facts constituting a legal verification under section 1101 of the civil code.

2. The answer denying the presentation raised no issue as to the verification, and no finding by the court, where the cause was tried without the intervention of a jury, as to such verification, was necessary to support a judgment for the plaintiff.

A finding by the court, under this state of the pleadings, of a portion only of the facts necessary to constitute a legal verification, affords no ground for the reversal of the judgment.

Francis M. Morgan admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor in the courts of Oregon, on a certificate from Missouri.

W. L. Bradshaw was admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor upon a certificate that he is a graduate of the law department of Washington university, St. Louis.

"PROTECTION" AND TONNAGE.

It was shown in these columns the other day that one great reason why we cannot build ships in the United States, and by consequence a main cause of the scarcity of tonnage and high charter rates, is found in the fact that our "protective" system makes the price of iron (the chief material of modern ship-building) so high that American builders cannot possibly compete with those of foreign countries. This is a self-evident proposition. To state it is to argue it. Our people therefore cannot build ships, and the laws of the country, which were framed ostensibly to protect American ship-building, but which have in fact annihilated it, do not permit citizens of the United States to buy foreign-built vessels, even to carry their own products to market. This policy is terribly oppressive to our producing classes. But the Salem Statesman devoted still to a stupid quackery which science and experience long ago exploded, and which is not now supported by a single thinker or publicist of any eminence in the whole world, is in love with the system that produces the above results, and tries to persuade our farmers that it is not only wise and right, but actually a good thing for their interests. That paper presents to its readers, who fortunately are not numerous, the astonishing information that within the past few days charters have declined 25 shillings at San Francisco; and this statement is produced with a triumphant flourish, as proof that a "tonnage pool," now broken, not "protection," causes scarcity of tonnage and high rates. The organ of "protection" thus plumes itself on having exclusive information as to a decline of 25 shillings in the San Francisco freight market. But actual reports of charters, as telegraphed daily to THE OREGONIAN, show nothing of the kind. For example, on the 2d October charters were 85s 3d and 70s on the 18th, they ranged from 80s 2d to 80s, and the reports published to-day give 77s 6d, as the quotation. Rates as low as 7, and in a few cases 55s, however, have been reported all along for vessels to arrive from two to four months hence. Charters have, indeed, weakened slightly within a month, though the quotations show little actual change. Just one month ago San Francisco reported vessels taken at 77s 6d, which is the rate given to-day. It is fair, however, to say that the market seems now to be less firm than then, which is due chiefly to the advance of the season. The Salem paper's "drop" of 25 shillings, which was conveniently assumed to bolster up the system which makes tonnage scarce and high, has, therefore, not occurred. But even if there were a positive decline, the fact would remain that there are no American ships; that our dependence for marketing our products is the shipping of Great Britain; that our laws, framed in the interest of "protection," make materials and labor so high that ships cannot be built in the United States; that these same laws, under the pretense of protecting an industry which does not exist and cannot exist under them, also prohibit the admission of foreign-built vessels to American register, and that our agricultural and other producers are oppressed by [illegible] whose operation is [illegible] in a [illegible] upon the people of our Pacific states. It will be said, of course, that "we must protect the labor of our own country." Then let some of this protection go to our agricultural labor, which is greater in amount than all other kinds together. But are we protecting labor employed in ship-building? Not at all. The system has annihilated our ship-building industry. We can build no ships; and yet the protectionist absurdly talks about the necessity of protecting the labor employed in ship-building. Our system is protecting foreign ship-building. It enables other countries to build ships without competition from us. It protects the foreign ship-owner from year to year by enabling him to make what rates he chooses for transportation of our products. Thus our own labor suffers from a system of robbery, disguised under forms of quackery, for pretended "protection of American labor." The stupidity that doesn't see it, particularly on this coast, where the producing classes are so plainly the victims of it, is phenomenal, and perhaps hopeless. It passes all understanding that any one should not be able to see that if we were building ships in the United States at a rapid rate, as we could and would if "protection" did not make the cost too great, and were permitted besides to buy foreign ships or have ships built in foreign yards for the carriage of our own products, there would soon be a supply of shipping which would break the "tonnage pool." But there are those who will stick to "protection" against all demonstration of its oppressive results, simply because they look upon it as a portion of a party creed. Every article of a party creed is in their eyes an infallible truth, to deviate from which in the smallest degree would subject them to all the terrors of party discipline and excommunication—the thing which men who live for party regard as the most terrible consequence that can overtake a misguided human being. Never, therefore, will you find them so presumptuous as to think and act for themselves. A dogma maintained by party demagogues to delude unthinking people and get their votes at elections, must be supported against the enlightenment and experience of the world.

BLAINE AND THE PRESIDENCY.

Friends of Mr. Blaine at Washington say he could not be induced to serve out his term as secretary of state under any circumstances. They say also that he is urging the president to take immediate action on his resignation. There is much speculation as to his political intentions for the future, which the New York Herald's Washington writers put in this shape: "That it is Blaine's intention to be a candidate for the presidency in 1884 is unquestionable, and he seems to be clear in the belief that his chances of carrying off the prize would be infinitely better out of the cabinet than in it. The publication recently of the letter which he wrote to Garfield accepting a place in the cabinet was not accidental. It was really the first step in the canvass for the next nomination. This has been followed by other movements since, which are only known to his most trusted followers." Mr. Blaine undoubtedly has a large following in the republican party. He has hitherto been too strong to win, or not strong enough. All the opponents of the strong man combine by a common instinct to pull him down. This is the first stage of the proceedings in a national convention. The next move is to bring out and unite upon a man who has not been prominent as a candidate, and who therefore has created no antagonisms. This has been the history of the two conventions before which Mr. Blaine has been a leading candidate. It is possible that with another effort the stereotyped course on such occasions would change; but it can hardly be supposed probable. The man who strives for the presidency seldom gets it. Mr. Buchanan affords the last instance of success in such undertaking. To Gen. Grant the presidency came when he did not seek it; but when he wanted it, and strove to get it, he failed signally. Mr. Tilden has been striving for many years to obtain it, with the result of causing enmities that make its obtainment impossible. It would not do, perhaps, to say that success is not possible for Mr. Blaine; but it may always be a safe guess that no one can name the man who will become president.

A friend at Brooks' Station hopes he will never again see in THE OREGONIAN the name of Guiteau, until the announcement is printed that he has been hanged. But why should the name of Guiteau be tabooed alone. If we are to have an index expurgatorius of names, let us have that of Roscoe Conkling put down also. "My conception of removing the president" says the assassin in his story of the crime, was this: Mr. Conkling resigned on Monday, May 16. On the following Wednesday I was in bed. Thinking over the political situation the idea flashed through my brain that if the president were out of the way everything would go better." Since Conkling's war on the president was the inspiration of the crime, and since the spoils system was the basis of Conkling's war on the president we have a state of facts which will do to think about for a long time. It is impossible therefore to drop the names of Guiteau and Conkling without violating the duty of making the strongest possible appeals, on all possible occasions, against the accursed system that is among its other evils and crimes, the inspiration of assassination.

Mr. J. S. Patterson, in an article in the Popular Science Monthly, brings out some very interesting facts on the increase and movement of the colored population of the United States. This population now numbers 6,877,000. Should it increase as rapidly during the next eighty years as during the last eighty, it would be 43,000,000. Meanwhile nothing is surer than that the high-toned Yankee is losing in his relative weight of numbers in this country, and it is equally sure that he will lose more and more, and eventually be absorbed by the Germans, the Celt, the southerner, and the colored man, all of whom are gaining upon him. During the past decade the percentage of increase in white populations in the southern states have been 32.9; in the northern states, 28.8, or 4.1 per cent. less than in the southern; but, for the whole United States, the colored increase averaged more than the white increase in either the north or the south. It was 54.8 per cent.

There are rumors of the discovery of a ring in the pension office, by which the government has been heavily defrauded. Mr. Schurz, who has had experience at the head of the department which includes the pension bureau says: "The most watchful man at the head of that bureau could not protect the treasury, for the exparte system gives so great an advantage to fraudulent claimants that the discovery of such practices is in most cases a matter of accident. It is almost incredible, but strictly true, that under existing laws pension claims are adjudicated upon mere ex-parte evidence. This is a direct invitation to fraud, and that invitation has been very extensively accepted."

Friends of Secretary Blaine who are near to him and who are understood to be the medium through which his intentions are filtered and dribbled out to the public, are said to ridicule the idea of his being an applicant for any foreign mission, and take it upon themselves to state that under no circumstances whatever could he be induced to accept such office under the government. If Mr. Blaine has any aspirations they now they are more of a political than diplomatic character.

To-day is the anniversary of several important events in the world's history. Among them the memorable battle of Trafalgar, in 1805, between the British and allied fleets, where Lord Nelson lost his life; the battle of Ball's Bluff in 1861, at which Senator Baker lost his life; the great earthquake at San Francisco in 1868, and the capitulation of the city of Orleans in 1870, during the Franco-Prussian war.

It is stated that eleven hundred houses in New York have been wired and made ready for the Edison electric lamp. The company are now waiting for the engines and boilers for the stations. It is expected they will be in place and the work of illumination commenced about the 15th November.

Col. Ingersoll is not satisfied to leave his theological debate with Judge Black where it stood in the North American Review for August. As a rule he who opens a debate is entitled to a last word; and Ingersoll will take it in the November number of that publication.

[illegible]DAY MORNING, OCTOBER 21, 1881.

CITY.

[illegible] DECISION.—Yesterday morning an important decision was rendered by Judge Sawyer in the U. S. circuit court in the case of Leander Holmes, [illegible], against the Oregon and California Railroad Company, denying the motion for a rehearing of the case. Below is a brief history of the case: On or about December 10, 1878, a man named [illegible], while intoxicated, was [illegible] from a ferryboat belonging to the O. & C. R. R. Co. into the Willamette river and was drowned. Upon petition of his widow an administrator was appointed in Multnomah county and an action for $5000 damages was brought before a jury in the circuit court, which returned a verdict for defendant. The plaintiff appealed the case to the supreme court of Oregon, where the judgment of the circuit court was affirmed. The plaintiff's attorneys then procured the appointment of an administrator in Jackson county, Leander Holmes—who was the libellant in the case decided yesterday. Holmes filed a libel in admiralty in the U. S. district court against defendant to recover damages on account of Perkins' death, and the district court, upon final hearing, dismissed the libel, and held that the appointment of the administrator in Multnomah county in this proceeding was conclusive, it appearing that the court had jurisdiction to make the appointment; that the libellant in the present case was not administrator and could not maintain suit. Holmes then appealed the case to the U. S. circuit court, where Judge Sawyer rendered a decision sustaining the decision of the district court. The proctors for libellant filed a motion for a rehearing, which Judge Sawyer in his decision yesterday denied. The decision of the court was an exhaustive one, occupying an hour in its delivery.

[illegible].—On Saturday night last Wm. [illegible] was badly beaten in a saloon near Watson's [illegible] by James Welch and Henry Stockhorst. [illegible] named Walter Doscher was arrested [illegible], but there was no evidence tending to connect him with the assault and he was discharged. The [illegible] Welch and Stockhorst were examined in their own behalf and testified that no blows were struck save with the naked hand. The case was submitted and the court held the prisoners to answer the charge of assault with intent to kill. They were admitted to bail in the sum of $250 each.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.

Large Increase in Attendance—Thirty-Five Hundred People Present.

The attendance at the fair last night was larger than on any previous night. It is estimated that fully 3500 people were present. From 8 o'clock till 11 the galleries were so crowded that promenading was slow and required a good deal of dodging, while the main floor down stairs, the floral department and machinery hall claimed a good share of the attendance. Two-thirds of the crowd were people from the interior. Nearly a thousand people arrived yesterday and even a larger number is expected to-day; departures are large but not in proportion to arrivals. To-day the children of the Indian training school of Forest Grove, seventy-five in number, will come in to attend the fair, where their presence will be an attractive feature. Mr. R. Koehler of the O. & C. R. R. Co. will send a special car out to-day for these children and send them home again on Monday free of charge.

GARRISON'S MACHINE DISPLAY.

Just at the head of the stairs near the Third street entrance is the handsomest display of sewing machines in the pavilion. The exhibit is made by John L. Garrison of 167 Third street, who has come to the front during the past year as the leading sewing machine man of Portland. Among the machines we notice the new Wilson family machine, the improved Singer, the "L" Howe manufacturing and the new style of Howe family machine, as well as the Davis, which machine is being run every night by the veteran sewing machine operator, Mr. J. M. McIntosh, who does a wide range of work on it. The beauty and favorite of the display, however, is the "Household" machine, of which Mr. Garrison is the general agent for Oregon and Washington. It is no doubt the handsomest machine in the pavilion, is light running and noiseless, and is bound to be a favorite in this market. The Household has "come to stay." It is manufactured by the Providence (R. I.) Tool Company, and has not been put on the market until after thorough trials and tests. The company spent five years in perfecting and experimenting and two years in testing on actual work before offering it to the public for sale. Mr. Garrison received one hundred Households by the last steamer, and is selling them as fast as they can be set up. Mr. John Desmond, the well known sewing machine repairer and adjuster, has charge of this machine at the fair, and is never so happy as when explaining the beauty and utility of the machine to those who stop at the stand. Mr. Garrison is also general agent of the Royal St. John sewing machine, and exhibits it in his display. The peculiarity of this machine is that its operator can run the driving wheel either way without breaking the thread, while the work runs in the same direction at all times, and has many other good points. Mr. Garrison handles only machines that have stood the test of actual work and that he can guarantee. He has six standard machines that he keeps for sale, and will add more during the coming season, so that customers can secure just what they want at his store. Sewing machine attachments, oils, needles, etc., are always to be had at his store, and in connection therewith he has a department where he repairs and adjusts all kinds of machines. All work done at this department, 167 Third street, is warranted by Mr. Garrison, and his charges are reasonable.

MARBLEIZED MANTLES.

We cannot imagine anything more comfortable on a damp, wintry evening, than to be sitting in front of a grate fire—that grate to be finished off with an attractive, durable mantel. Mr. A. Goodnough, during a recent eastern trip, contracted for the sale of a special make of marbleized mantels, which for durability and beauty cannot be excelled. So fascinating are they, that the residences of George James Esq., J. Brandt, Jr., I. F. Frazer, John Wilson and others, are supplied with one or more. Several gentlemen have contracted with Mr. Goodnough to set them up in their houses about completed, which will be done forthwith. Besides the one in the art gallery, Mr. Goodnough has some forty at his place of business, Second and O streets, and some fifty are on the way from the east. Judging by these figures the demand for these mantels is unabated. No well appointed residence should be without them.

ABELL'S.

Exhibit in the art gallery, continues to attract much attention. It would be difficult to say which particular class of work is most admired, as all classes have different opinions on the subject. At all events the general work is first class, and no matter what style is desired, Mr. Abell can do justice to the occasion. His gallery of little ones attracts the eye of fond parents, and, judging by the excellence of this difficult class to work with, it is astonishing how well Abell "gets them." But we must not confine ourselves to any particular line—all is good and that covers the case.

HELBOCK BROS.

Are alone in the matter of exhibiting stucco work, which includes statuary (plain or touched in colors or gilt), moldings, Corinthian caps, pilasters, center pieces, brackets and many other ornamental pieces, any of which assist materially to enhance the beauty of the interior of buildings. The latest idea in stucco work are the fine caps, which in this class of work are more sightly than the common run affairs usually seen. Besides being at home in the preparation of stucco work, Lelbock Bros. are first-class sign painters. Their business quarters are on Alder street.

LITT'S

Admiring groups assemble in front of the display of this gentleman and gaze with rapture upon the entrancing array of dresses which must hold the attention of any possessing the least taste. We have no doubt that many ladies look forward to becoming the possessor of one of the dresses which are the main attraction in the west end of the gallery. Mr. Litt expresses great confidence and looks forward with certainty to winning the promised medals.

How often you hear men make the remark, "I would rather do anything than buy a new hat. I never can get a hat that becomes me," etc., etc. My fastidious friend, the reason why you can't get a hat to please you is very simple. You don't go to the right place. Getting up different styles of hats to suit all the various forms and faces is both a science and a trade. If you want a watch mended you wont take it to a blacksmith; hence, when you want a hat go to a regular Hatter, and go to one that is known to have some taste too. We notice that those dealing with Woods, the Hatter, have no complaints to make about ill-fitting or unbecoming hats. Woods' stock is so large and his styles so varied that he can suit every form and face. Get your next hat of Woods, the Hatter, by all means.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE CONVENTION.

Third Day's Meeting.

A GREAT INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE.

The third day's meeting of the Oregon State Woman Suffrage convention yesterday at Y. M. C. A. hall was characterized by a notable increase in attendance, and also by a series of interesting resolutions being drafted and adopted.

At the morning session a fair audience assembled. After the chair had called the meeting to order the minutes of the preceding meeting were read by Miss Maggie Foster, secretary, and duly approved.

Committee on resolutions reported the following:

Resolved, That a republican form of government is based upon the eternal principle of no taxation without representation. Rights and burdens must correspond.

Resolved, That any man who forgets these principles is false to liberty.

Mr. D'Arcy spoke upon the first resolution, arguing strongly against the injustice of taxation without representation and claimed that the principle applied equally to men and women.

Mr. Benjamin stated that the usual argument was that women were represented because cannibals ate.

Mrs. Thompson replied that this was the argument applied to negroes in the days of slavery.

Adopted.

The second resolution provoked considerable discussion.

Mr. Collins of Dallas thought the accusation too sweeping. A man was not necessarily false to liberty who was opposed to equality of taxation and representation. Honest men sometimes opposed woman suffrage.

Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Moreland, Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. Lungbury spoke in favor of the resolution without change.

Mrs. Duniway offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That any man who objects to these principles fails to comprehend the spirit of liberty.

Mrs. Thompson objected.

Miss Foster favored the substitute. Though it correctly expressed the idea intended to be conveyed.

Mr. Pierce favored the substitute.

Mrs. Duniway said that men had often accused women of tirades against them. She did not wish to give them opportunity to accuse her sex of that of which they were not guilty. Women like men and must study to make them believe it.

The substitute was voted down and the original resolution was made a special order of business for 2 o'clock. Adjourned to 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Met at 2 P. M., Mrs. Duniway in the chair. A fine audience present.

The resolution that had evoked so much discussion at the morning session, was replaced by the following substitute:

Resolved, That any person who objects to the theory of "No taxation without representation," fails to comprehend the spirit of liberty, and is not an advocate of a republican form of government.

The following was next offered by the committee on resolutions and passed without debate:

Resolved, That the right of self-government inheres in the individual and justly belongs to every human being, subject to the obligations the right carries with it, and as the principles of liberty were never based upon the distinction of sex, any system of representation that imposes legal disability on upon sex is not republican in form, because it does not include "every citizen."

Judge Holmes offered the following, which was passed unanimously:

WHEREAS, The object of government is the protection of the people in their natural and relative rights, by the passage of equal and just laws, operating on all alike; and

WHEREAS, In all governments there are many vicious, ignorant and immoral persons, who endanger the peace and safety of society, therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this association that the elective franchise should not be confined to one sex, but should include both sexes, upon the same grounds, tests and principles, and should be as universal as the peace and safety of society may warrant.

The second resolution offered by this gentleman was that state governments should be established by law, and tests of suffrage should be based upon a defined intellectual and moral qualification.

Mrs. Thompson made a strong speech in favor of the resolution. She was opposed to allowing ignorance and vice to vote.

Mrs. Martin agreed with Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. Coburn objected. She thought the wise thing for women would be to secure the elective franchise before they undertook to limit it. This resolution, if passed, would have as much power to effect its purpose as the pope's bull against the comet. While, abstractly speaking, the principle it enunciated was right, it was neither wise nor expedient to antagonize voters by adopting it. The resolution was premature.

Mr. D'Arcy advocated the resolution. In the course of his remarks he used the words, "If I am ever so unfortunate as to get married."

The chair suggested that he ought not to use that word "unfortunate" in reference to marriage when so many widows were present. [Universal merriment.]

The gentleman modified his expression and mildly rebuked the chair for interrupting a debate. [Laughter and applause.]

Mrs. Johnson was called to the chair, and Mrs. Duniway spoke against the resolution. She was reminded of the mice in council, who passed a resolution to bell a marauding cat, but failed to find a mouse to put the resolution into execution. Lost by unanimous vote.

The following resolutions were passed without debate:

Resolved, That while we hold that a true, enlightened advocate of a republican form of government will freely accord equal rights to all law abiding and tax paying citizens we also recognize the fact that our opponents are honest in their adverse opinions; therefore we call upon them to dispassionately investigate our claims by the light of reason, under the demands of justice.

Resolved, That as woman is an integral part of the body politic, she is justly entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to man, the right of suffrage included.

Resolved, That the proffer of liberty to a class of persons while withholding the means of securing its blessings is a mockery, a sham and a cheat.

Resolved, That the denial of the elective franchise to any person or class on account of sex is tyranny, unwarranted and criminal.

Rev. Dr. May, formerly rabbi of the synagogue, Beth Israel, upon being called for, spoke for a few minutes in advocacy of equal rights for men and women. He was glad to see the mothers of the race interested in their enfranchisement. He was a disciple of Moses the first great emancipator. He asked women to place their standard high and repudiated all wrong doing in their own sex as well as in men.

Rev. Dr. Atkinson spoke briefly in response to an invitation, giving many cogent reasons for his opinion that women should become a recognized factor in the law making power of the land. His remarks revealed close study of the subject and were deeply interesting.

Rev. Paul A. Smith, a Universalist clergyman from Polk county, gave the movement his hearty indorsement.

A goodly number of new names were added to the constitution.

Adjourned to 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The largest audience that has thus far assembled, greeted the members of the association last night. The meeting was opened by President Heron, and after the regular order of business the following programme was given:

Music—Instrumental solo, Mrs. Owen, which was given in a pleasing manner.

C. J. Curtis followed with an address which he delivered in an eloquent manner.

An essay entitled "Maid of Athens," by Dr C. H. Hall, was rendered in a masterly manner and evoked considerable applause.

Rev. T. L. Eliot introduced Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Jr., who made an excellent address. Indeed Mr. Garrison's speech was the main feature of the evening. Lack of space prevents further mention of it at the present time.

An elaborate essay on the law relating to the construction of statutes and amendments was read by J. L. Collins, of Dallas. Mr. Collins particularly dwelt on the construction of constitutional amendments, and evinced a thorough familiarity with his subject.

The meeting concluded with a solo on the piano, by Mrs. Owen, entitled, "Garfield's Funeral March," which she played in a very feeling manner.

The following programme was then announced for this evening:

Overture; opening remarks, J. F. D'Arcy; short address, Rev. T. L. Eliot; essay, Rev. H. K. Hines; instrumental solo, Mrs. H. W. Scott; address, Rev. J. A. Gray; address, Rev. Dr. May; music; closing remarks, George P. Riley.

On motion the convention adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

An Open Secret.

The fact is well understood that the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT is by far the best external known for man or beast. The reason why becomes an "open secret" when we explain that "Mustang" penetrates skin, flesh and muscle to the very bone, removing all disease and soreness. No other liniment does this, hence none other is so largely used or does such worlds of good.

Beauty, Durability and Economy Combined.

The attention of consumers is called to the superior quality of the AVERILL MIXED PAINTS, which have been used nearly twenty years with great satisfaction, and for the following reasons: Its DURABILITY is acknowledged to exceed any other paint. Its BEAUTY and BRILLIANCY of finish are incomparable, even leading many to believe that varnish is employed in its manufacture. It can be washed or scrubbed without damage, retaining its original lustre—fire-proof to a high degree. Its convenience commends it to all—ready for use; any man, woman or child can use it.

THURSDAY, Oct. 20.

The general tone of the wheat market for the past week has been weak, and to-day it is decidedly off, due to advices from England of lower prices and small sales. Buying has been active in England for several weeks and millers being well stocked have paused in buying operations for a time, hence the unfavorable situation. As a consequence of poor market but very little American wheat is being offered in the English market. The pause is merely temporary, and not a break or anything approaching it. Whether recent good prices will be regained when business revives is a matter for speculation. It is a mere question of strength between the people in England, who buy wheat, and the people in America, who have it to sell. Quotation $1 60 per cental.

THE ENGLISH MARKET.

Following is the comment of the Mark Lane Express of Monday upon the English wheat market, specially telegraphed to THE OREGONIAN:

The week's weather has been favorable for sowing, which is progressing rapidly. Farmers on account of difficulty in obtaining sound seed wheat, prefer sowing last year's. Our water-logged native wheats sell chiefly for mixing with hard foreign, which is thereby enhanced in value. The sale of native has been weakening since Monday. Sales were difficult Friday at a reduction of 2 shillings. Supplies are large and decline general. For foreign the demand is inanimate. Friday's prices declined 1 shilling and sometimes more. No 1 red winter held for 58 shillings, which is not obtainable. Flour is constantly cheaper; foreign in small supply; rates therefore unchanged. Barley for grinding continues depressed; white fine samples realize high prices; it is evident that the level of values for malting barleys will have to be established on a foreign basis. Oats are depressed; prices unchanged; foreign oats dull. A small business was done at unchanged rates in maize; there was very slow trade; prices closed 6d cheaper everywhere. Sales of English wheat 61,398 quarters at 47s 1d per quarter.

THE FREIGHT SITUATION

is but very little changed. The Inverisk which has been on the market for several days has been withdrawn and will load on owner's account. The spot charter rate is about 65s, a decline from the highest rate of the season of about 5s—due to the advancing season and the dullness and decline in the English market. If recent high prices for wheat should rule again in England to-morrow, the demand for ships here would again be active and charter rates would again advance. As usual, however, at this season there is a general slight decline in freights.

THE PREPARATION OF FRUIT

For market is indeed an important matter as we have shown heretofore. The following letter from Geo. W. Meade & Co., a prominent commission house of San Francisco, confirms all we have said and contains some other points worth the attention of fruit growers:

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15, 1881.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In the interest of the dried-fruit producers of your state, please let us say that if they will pack their fruits in uniform packages of 50 pounds each, make the boxes of the lightest material consistent with safe carriage and make attractive layers of the fruit on top of each box, they will greatly add to the reputation of Oregon fruit and largely increase its sale in this and adjacent markets. We also suggest that all machine-dried apples be bleached, which makes the apples more attractive and increases the price. For many years we have bought and handled, directly and indirectly, the bulk of the Oregon evaporated fruits, but from all sources comes the universal complaint, "Fruit sadly packed; too dark in color; boxes too heavy and packages rough, uncouth and not uniform weights."

It is an easy matter, it would seem to us, for your people to remedy all this, and it will be many dollars in their pockets to do so. Last year, while the Portland market was full of "Plummer" apples, we imported and readily sold some 12 cars of New York evaporated apples; no better fruit really than yours, but they were handsomely and uniformly packed, all bleached, and in every instance outsold the Oregon fruit at a higher price. Yours, &c.,

GEO. W. MEADE & CO.

Home Produce Market.

Owing to the slight improvement in wheat, flour continues firm at last week's quotations. The supply is very fair. The demand for standard brands has been large. Good country brands are asked for by shippers. There is no change in oats since last week. There is a good demand for shipment to California, which may result in high prices next spring. Hay is unchanged. Stocks are very large. All mill feed continues in sympathy with flour. Bran is coming in very freely, but owing to high prices in California, prices here remain very high. There is considerable inquiry for chop and middlings for feed as river bottom pastures are giving out. There is no change in cured meats. There is little Oregon bacon in market. The market is entirely supplied with eastern meats. Shoulders are very scarce. Lard is unchanged. There is a large demand for California lard in kegs. Owing to advices of small crops of apples in the east, there is considerable inquiry for Plummer dried apples. There is a prospect of high prices in the spring. Plums are in sympathy with apples. Hops are unchanged. Good dry hides are wanted and bring top figures. All inferior lots are rejected from shipments to California. Fancy roll butter is scarce. We look for an advance during the coming week. There is good demand for common store butter, bakers preferring it at 20c to lard in kegs at 16c. Owing to the recent rains there are few onions in the market, the supply not equaling the demand. On account of slight receipts during the past week, eggs have advanced. We look for further advance during the week. There is no change in cheese. The market is well supplied with first class apples. The demand is light. There are very few pears in market and good varieties find ready sale. The demand continues good for timothy seed. Only good clean seed is wanted. Receipts of chickens continue large and prices are very low. There is no change in salmon. Bellies in kegs are particularly wanted. The demand for potatoes in California still continues and prices are rather firm in consequence. Owing to near approach of rainy season, the demand for shingles is falling off. Quotations:

Is not a "cure-all;" it is a blood-purifier and tonic. Impurity of blood poisons the system, deranges the circulation, and thus induces many disorders, known by different names to distinguish them according to effects, but being really branches or phases of that great generic disorder, Impurity of Blood. Such are Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Nervous Disorders, Headache, Backache, General Weakness, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Kidney Disease, Piles, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Disorders, Pimples, Ulcers, Swellings, &c., &c. King of the Blood prevents and cures these by attacking the cause, Impurity of the Blood. Chemists and physicians agree in calling it "the most genuine and efficient preparation for the purpose." Sold by Druggists. $1 per bottle. See testimonials, directions, &c., in pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," wrapped around each bottle.

DR. BRENAN,

ALL CHRONIC & DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of Disease of the generative organs or private disease. He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the FOLLIES OF YOUTH.

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be affected by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organizations broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death comes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

Office—132 and 134 Third St., opposite Masonic Hall. Office hours—From 10 to 12 A. M., 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 P. M. To all letters of professional business must be addressed

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low, and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

Read the following Testimonials:

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 19, 1881.

I have now over eighty (80) of Taylor's Spring Beds in use in the National Hotel, thirty (30) of which have been used daily for over three years, and will say that they are in as good condition now as when put in, having needed no repairs in that time. OIL! OIL!

SKIDEGATE OIL!

QUALITY, QUANTITY AND PRICE

Are three great considerations to consumers in the general use of LUBRICANTS. On these we base our claims to the Trade, and confidently advertise.

OIL from shark livers is well known to possess very superior lubricating properties, and that manufactured by the Skidegate Oil Company, at their steam works, Queen Charlotte Island, has been tested in competition with Lard, Olive, Gallipoli and Rangoon Oils, and in every instance has proved its superiority. The QUALITY is good, beyond a doubt, a less QUANTITY is required, and the PRICE placed at a rate that is sound to command a large sale, and give satisfaction to the consumer. The Company has numerous testimonials in support of its merits, but to those who have not used it, a fair trial is the best way to test its properties and economize value.

PUT UP IN CASES 10 GALLONS EACH

Quality, ORDINARY and EXTRA. The EXTRA we maintain is second to none in the world for any class of machinery. Send for circular.
